Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Tuesday 09 Nov 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Remaining rain clearing, then drier and clearer.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mostly dry overnight as any lingering rain or drizzle in the south eases, although the odd light shower is possible in the far north. A few clear spells developing, with light winds. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
Fine and dry for most, with light winds. Some sunshine likely, especially across the north, however a light shower cannot be ruled out. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Dry Thursday, with any early mist clearing to give some brighter spells. Rather windy Friday, with rain spreading east. Brighter on Saturday, with perhaps the odd shower.
